

PULASKI MIDDLE SCHOOL AWARDS
JUNE 14TH, 2021

WELCOME

We would like to welcome everyone to our annual Middle School Awards Ceremony. Once again we wish that we could be celebrating our students' accomplishments in person. We want to commend your efforts during this unprecedented time in your academic history.

Please sit back and relax as we present our awards for the 2020-21 school year.

The Mort Award

This year's Mort Award was created in honor and remembrance of Daniel Moriarty, a Pulaski English teacher that was always able to connect with, and guide, students to a path of improvement and success. The Mort Award is awarded to one student per grade level who has shown outstanding improvement and effort in their English class. This is a monetary award of $25.

The following students are recipients of this award:

- Grade 6: Kierra Adams
- Grade 7: Jacob Egan
- Grade 8: Angel Rettig

John Waddicor Memorial Reading Incentive Award

This award has been established in honor of librarian John Waddicor, from funds donated in his memory to recognize students who have demonstrated a love for literature and an extraordinary interest in books and reading. This award is a $40 gift card to Barnes & Noble.

The following are the recipients of this award:

- Grade 6: Xavier Balcom and Michaela Sperati-Epding
- Grade 7: Matthew Barber and Hattie Wallis
- Grade 8: Jocelyn Hays and Emily Hipple

Brenda Powell Memorial Band Award

This award is presented to two sixth grade students each year who have shown outstanding interest and enthusiasm in music, who are dependable, cooperative and have good practice habits and attendance. This is a monetary award of $50 each and the names are engraved on a plaque that is on display in the main lobby.

The following student are the recipients of this award:

- Aubrie Griffith
- Grant Wilson

Attorney General's Triple C Award

This award is presented to 1 student at each grade level who has demonstrated Character, Commitment and Courage. Each student receives a letter and certificate from the New York State Attorney General.
